Appropriate communications include:

- All Annapolis Cove official business. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Meeting notices
 - Committee information
 - Board reports
 - Requests for information from homeowners
 - Weather updates (hurricanes, snow, floods)
 - Safety updates (speeding, deer watch, burglaries)

- All Annapolis Cove-sponsored events. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Community picnics, parties, information sessions, annual meetings, special meetings, blood drives
 - Official partnerships with government agencies (e.g., the County's Santa Ride)

- Urgent or Emergency situations in which time is a factor. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Missing children (photos encouraged)
 - Missing pets, found pets (photos encouraged)

- Other
 - Municipality updates (county council meeting/special information, requests or updates, updates in trash service, and other global events that affect the community, such as BGE updates, and how to report a power outage)

Because of potential liability, our status as a non-profit organization, and potential volume issues, the following are excluded from Cove News:

- Promotion of businesses
- Promotion of special causes that involve monetary contributions
- Fundraisers for schools, churches, special organizations, or causes
- Notices of lost coats, bikes, etc., carpooling, items for sale (Web site bulletin board is for such items)
- Personal opinion

Email Lists

Annapolis Cove does not share the electronic email list with anyone for any purpose. The community has no control over whether a homeowner develops his or her own electronic list based on the community directory, and bears no responsibility for emails sent to the community from individual homeowners.
